And to two private Bills.

Copenhagen, March 27, N. S. His Danish Majesty has now declared his Intention to set out for Holstein in the Month of April, and has ordered both the Ministers of the Council, with M. Schulin, to attend him in that Progress. The Princess Charlotte has accepted his Majesty's Invitation to accompany him in this Journey. General Morner is arrived here, but the Troops will not be so soon in Holstein as was expected. Count Holst, Son to the Grand Chancellor, is upon the Point of setting out for Manheim, to terminate a Dispute which the General abovementioned had with the Elector Palatin upon the Subject of Winter Quarters. He is to make up this Matter, and at the same Time to renew the Demand of a very antient Debt due from the Palatin Family to the Danish Crown.

St. James's, March 22.

This Day M. Voit, Envoy from the Margrave of Anspach, had his first private Audience dience of his Majesty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Selkirk, Lord of the Bed-chamber in waiting, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of Her Majesty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Grantham Her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by the Master of the Ceremonies.

From thence he was introduced to a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, by the Master of the Ceremonies.

March 23. This Day he had a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Duke.

March 24. This Day he had a private Audience of their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Amelia and Caroline.

March 25. This Day he had a private Audience of their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Mary and Louisa: To all which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, March 27.

His Majesty has been pleased to constitute and appoint George Garnier, Esq; to be Apothecary General to His Majesty's Forces raised and to be raised for his Service, in the Room of Isaac Garnier, Esq; deceased.

Whitehall, March 26, 1736.

Whereas His Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation, issued, by the Advice of His Privy Council, upon the 5th Day of February last, in order to bring the Persons to condign Punishment, who, in September last, had been guilty of wilfully and maliciously cutting down and destroying the Turnpikes at Ledbury in the County of Hereford, erected by Authority of Parliament, and who were concerned in the Attack then made on the House of John Skipp, Esq; one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County, and who had been since guilty of several other notorious Outrages and Disturbances in the said County of Hereford, particularly mentioned in the said Proclamation, was graciously pleased to promise a Pardon to any of the Persons concerned in the said Outrages, upon such Terms as are mentioned in the said Proclamation, provided they made such Discoveries, as are therein particularly mentioned, before the 10th Day of March then next ensuing: And was likewise graciously pleased to offer a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons, who, before the said 10th Day of March, should discover, and apprehend any of the Persons therein mentioned, or any other Person or Persons guilty of the Offences therein mentioned, so as he, she, or they might be convicted of the same. And whereas the Time for making such Discoveries is now past, and it hath been represented to His Majesty, That, in order to bring the said Offenders to Justice, it may be proper to enlarge the same, His Majesty therefore is pleased to enlarge the Time of such Discovery to the 3d Day of April next, and is hereby graciously pleased to promise the like Pardon, and to give the same Reward, as is mentioned in the said Proclamation, to any Person or Persons, as shall make such effectual Discoveries, as are therein mentioned, at any Time before the Third Day of April next, and upon the same Terms and Conditions, as is mentioned and expressed in the said Proclamation. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Whitehall, March 26, 1736.

Whereas on the 13th Day of this Instant March, about Three or Four of the Clock in the Morning, the Greyhound Inn within the Corporation of Maidenhead, in the County of Berks, was consumed by Fire, and from several Examinations since taken upon Oath, it is presumed that the said House was wilfully burnt; wherefore, in order to discover the Persons concerned in so wicked a Practice, His Majesty is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any of the Accomplices who shall discover the others concerned in the said Fact, so as they may be brought to Justice and convicted thereof. HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement for making the above Discovery, the Trustees of the Sun Fire Office in London promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any one of the Persons concerned in the said Fact; to be paid on Conviction of the Offender or Offenders, by their Secretary, at their Office behind the Royal Exchange in London. W. Watts, Secretary.

Navy-Office, March 22, 1735.

These are to give Notice, that the Two Months Wages in Six, due to His Majesty's Ships undermentioned, to the Times against them express'd, will be paid at the Pay Office in Broad-street, on Tuesday the 6th of next Month, to the Seamens lawful Attorneys, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament on that Behalf, viz.

Sea Horse, 31 August,
Newcastle, 30 July.

Pay Office, Horse Guards, March 26, 1736.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having directed six Months Half Pay to the Reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, to the 24th of December, 1735, these are to give Notice, that upon Tuesday next, the 30th Instant, Attendance will be given at the aforesaid Office for Payment of the same accordingly. H. Pelham.

Wine Licence Office, March 18, 1735-6.

His Majesty's Commissioners for managing the Duty arising from Wine Licences, give Notice, That constant Attendance is given at their Office in Arundel-street in the Strand, for the Dispatch of the Business thereof, on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, in the Forenoon, Holydays excepted.

London, March 24, 1735-6.

Whereas by an Act made and passed in Parliament, in the Eighth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the Second, for the Application of the Rents and Profits of the Estates forfeited by the Attainder of James late Earl of Derwentwater, and Charles Radcliffe, it is enacted amongst other Things, That the Commissioners or Governors of his Majesty's Royal Hospital at Greenwich are to give six Months previous Notice in the London Gazette, of the Time and Place, when and where such Estates are intended to be Lett. Notice is therefore hereby given, by us the Commissioners of the said Hospital, that on Wednesday the 29th of September next ensuing, and every Wednesday and Friday following, will be Lett on Lease for Twenty One Years, or on Tack Notes for one Year, at Salters Hall in London, any of the Lead Mines, or Veins of Lead Oar, within the Manor of Aldston-moor, in the County of Cumberland, or elsewhere, belonging to the said Estate, till the whole shall be Lett; and all Adventurers are desired to give in their Proposals in Writing, directed to William Corbett, Esq; at the Pay Office in Broad-street, London, or to Messr. Walton and Boag, at Ravensworth Castle near Durham, shewing what Vein or Mine, they, or each of them would take, whether on Lease or Tack Note, and at what Due or Share to the Hospital. Notice is also hereby given, that at the same Time and Place will be Lett upon Lease for Twenty One Years, all the Farms, Tythes, Collieries, and other Estates, of the late James Earl of Derwentwater, in the Counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, and Durham, as are now out of Lease; and all Persons willing to take any Part of the said Estates, are desired to give in their Proposals in Writing to the said Mr. Corbett, or Messieurs Walton and Boag; of whom Particulars may be had of all, or any Part of the said Estates as are now out of Lease.
